Workforce Solutions is Evolving

New ways to serve you!

Purpose: Announcing the transformation of career service delivery to the North Shore area when the current lease expires on September 30, 2025.

- Strategic Plan Alignment: Decision to not renew lease is part of new five-year plan to improve services and expand access.
- Service Continuity: We are committed to providing uninterrupted support and service delivery for job seekers and employers in this area.
- Next Steps: The change allows us to enhance how we deliver services, offering more convenient options for job seekers and employers.

New And Enhanced Service Delivery

Our commitment to You.

As part of our commitment to improving how we deliver services, we are introducing:

- Virtual Appointments and Online Tools for easier access to job matching, career advice, and training.
- A New Website and Mobile App to help you connect to opportunities anytime, anywhere.
- Partnerships with community organizations to provide convenient and easily accessible, in-person services.

Our Core Services

We will continue to provide:

- Job Matching: Access to job opportunities and recruitment services.
- Career Counseling: One-on-one guidance to help you find the right path.
- Training Programs: Virtual and in-person options to upskill for new roles.
- Digital Access: Enhanced online career portal and mobile app launching soon.

Looking Ahead

Strengthening Community Connections

- Community-Based Support: Continue services delivery through partnerships with community centers, libraries, and other easily accessible venues and key locations in the area.
- Co-location Strategy: Allows job seekers to access career support and job matching services in their own neighborhoods and community.
- Partnerships: These community-based locations will provide in-person support, complementing our virtual services and making it easier for job seekers to find needed help without traveling far.
